

New Arrival School
Weekday mornings, 9:15–11:45 a.m.

The New Arrival School provides basic survival English classes for adult refugees being settled in our community. The summer session runs through July 23, and volunteers are needed to assist teachers one morning a week. Classes are 9:15–11:45 a.m. at Immanuel Baptist Church, 2432 High Point Road. No special training is necessary. Contact Marty Halyburton at 540-1535 or martyhaly@gmail.com.

Greensboro Urban Ministry Clothing Pantry
Donations accepted on ongoing basis

GUM's clothing ministry is short on clothes! Take gently used and unwanted clothing to the GUM clothing pantry on Lee Street, next to the Urban Ministry offices. All types of clothing are needed, including shoes, underwear, and other accessories.

Used Eyeglass Collection
Donations accepted on ongoing basis

Got a new vision prescription? Bring your old eyeglasses to the church to be given to someone in need. Eyeglass collection boxes are in the Haywood Duke Room lobby and in the receptionist's lobby. The Lions Club collects used glasses and distributes them to those who otherwise could not afford them.

Holy Trinity Episcopal Church

607 North Greene Street
Greensboro, North Carolina 27401
(336) 272-6149 • Fax (336) 272-6197
www.holy-trinity.com

Mustard Seeds

Plant your faith in many places and watch God's kingdom grow!

Outreach Opportunities For:

- Individuals
- Families
- Groups

Of All Ages And Abilities!

August 2009

Babysitting at Mary's House Various Times

Adults and teens age 14 and up are needed to provide babysitting for residents of Mary's House. This vital volunteer service allows mothers who live at the house and are recovering from addiction to attend AA and NA meetings. Sitters are needed Sunday–Thursday from 5:30–7:30 p.m., Fridays from 7–8 p.m., and Saturdays from 10:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m. The children range in age from 1 to 8. A short training is required, and Mary's House prefers sitters to commit to serving for more than one session. Contact Margel Graham, 253-6557 or mgraham@hospicegso.org.

Potter's House at Greensboro Urban Ministry Sunday, August 2, 9:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Help serve lunch at Greensboro Urban Ministry's Potter's House. A group meets the first Sunday of each month to serve shelter residents. Call Georgia Sprinkle at 292-1428 to volunteer for one Sunday or several.

Triad Health Project After 1 p.m. weekly

Deliver groceries to clients for Triad Health Project. Show up at THP offices (801 Summit Ave.) and you will be given bags of groceries and directions as to where to deliver. Delivery takes less than an hour. You must be able to carry grocery bags and drive. Call Wendy Lavine at 275-1654 for more information or to volunteer.

G8 Tuesday Morning Breakfast Subs needed, 5:30–7:30 a.m. weekly

Fill in occasionally with the G8 Episcopal Partnership to cook and serve breakfast at Greensboro Urban Ministry on Tuesday mornings from 5:30–7:30 a.m. Most volunteers arrive at 6 a.m., and breakfast is served at 7 a.m. Volunteers cook, make coffee, greet guests, serve food, make bag lunches, help with a devotional, and clean up. Contact Marilyn Evans at 294-6576 or marilyn.evans@gmail.com. Children age 10 and up are welcome.

Bag Lunches for Greensboro Urban Ministry Ongoing Weekly

G8 Tuesday breakfast volunteers also make bag lunches for shelter residents who are going off to work for the day. Bring donations of jars of peanut butter, jars of jelly, plastic baggies, snack cakes, paper bags, crackers, etc. to the parish office. Or get a group family or friends to prepare the lunches (without sandwiches) in advance and drop them off at GUM for distribution on Tuesday morning. Contact Marilyn Evans at 294-6576 or marilyn.evans@gmail.com.

Hot Dish & Hope at First Presbyterian Church Tuesday, August 25, 5:15–7 p.m.

Holy Trinity serves dinner to the homeless on the fourth Tuesday of each month at Hot Dish & Hope. Plan to arrive by 5:15 p.m. and stay until 7 p.m. Children are welcome but may have a limited role. Teens and up may help serve, give a devotion, lead in singing, clean up, greet guests or help with guests' children. Contact Peggy Follin at 288-9909 or pfollin@triad.rr.com to volunteer.

Agents of Grace: Mission Greensboro Saturday, August 29, 8:30 a.m.–2:30 p.m.

A great opportunity for families and individuals of all ages to come together for a morning of service to others! The event begins at Grimsley High School with a short invocation. Participants serve at work sites throughout the community from 9 a.m.–12 pm. and then return to Grimsley for a free lunch and entertainment (live music, jumping tent, clowns, etc.). Sign up on Sunday mornings at the table on the covered walkway, or contact Kimberly Heckman at 272-0112 or kheckman@triad.rr.com.

THIS MONTH'S FEATURED VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

School Supply Drive August 1–31, 2009

Our annual School Supply Drive runs through the month of August and benefits children at Cone Elementary School, Smith High School (where many students are homeless), and Partnership Village.

Suggested items include: book bags/backpacks, notebook paper, composition books, report folders, 3-ring binders, notebook dividers, pencils, pens, erasers, glue sticks, colored markers, colored pencils, hi-liters, safety scissors, zippered pencil pockets, antibacterial soap/wipes, tissues, hand sanitizer, deodorant and feminine hygiene products.

Leave your donations in the boxes in the narthex, the receptionist's lobby, and outside the Haywood Duke Room.

Turn the page for more opportunities...